

Accessing Nevada Licensed Databases From Outside Your School or Library

Available for access at:

<http://trials.galegroup.com/nvk12>

Discovering Collection – students all ages
Junior Reference Collection – students all ages
Infotrac Student Edition – high school students
Infotrac Junior Edition – middle school students
Infotrac Kid's Edition – elementary school students
Professional Collection – for educators
Kids InfoBits – elementary school students
Reference Center Gold (Student & General) – students all ages
Academic ASAP – high school students
Informe – Spanish student database
What do I read next (Readers Advisory)

Available for access at:

<http://search.epnet.com>

UserID: nvpl
Password: password

Searchasaurus – elementary and middle school students (includes Primary and Middle Search Plus)
Academic Search Elite – high school students (scholarly)
Encyclopedia of Animals – students all ages
Funk & Wagnall's New Encyclopedia – elementary school students
MasterFile Premier – middle & high school students
MAS Ultra – high school students
Newspaper Source – students all ages
Professional Collection – for educators
Health Source Consumer Edition – middle & high school students
ERIC – for educators
TOPICsearch – middle & high school students
General Science Collection – middle & high school students
Regional Business News – high school students
Business Source Elite – high school students
Health Source Nursing – high school students (scholarly)

Available for access at:

TBA (check <http://www.infonevada.org> for updates)

Facts On File News Services

Facts for Learning – elementary and middle school students
Today's Science – students all ages

Please note: For more information on what is available visit <http://dmla.clan.lib.nv.us/docs/infonevada> or <http://www.infonevada.org>

Please note: Databases highlighted in Yellow are being demonstrated today